How do you want the Efeng Bacha Initiative to assist your entrepreneurship journey?

I want the initiative to guide me on how to run a registered foundation/ non-profit organisation/ non-profit company and how to get sponsors for it.

How do you #ServeLikeMadiba?

I am currently running a foundation called "Singie Johns Foundation", which has the mission to create and use new ways to restore and improve the quality of life in our society by restoring human dignity. The foundation is divided into five departments namely, educational, humanitarian aid, motivational, mentorship and entrepreneurship, and sports and art. So far, as a team we managed to donate more than 150 sanitary pads to our young girls, and we have finalised that next month (November) we are going to donate food and clothes to the unfortunate families that we have spotted in our communities. In December, but still to be confirmed, we are planning to start hosting sport events/tournaments for our youth because we believe that sport can give new life to children/youth, because we are trying to take our children/youth out of the streets, out of substance abuses, out of violence and give them hope. And in addition, Next year we will be donating school uniforms and necessary stationaries to our learners and also be offering tutorials and career guidance. We are implementing ways to counteract teenage pregnancy, GBV, substance abuse and unemployment.

As a #legacyleader, what is your advice to the children and youth of our nation?

Always be yourself, and try to have a role model, but having a role model does not mean impersonating such a person. Another thing is that always follow what you are passionate about, not what you "think" you are supposed to be. Thirdly, always humble yourself even on front of your enemies and learn to listen to understand not for the sake of answering and please take a note that in order to understand a person, you have to put yourself on the same foot as that person. Fourthly, learn to take advices, because one who loves you warns you. Lastly, take a note that as humans we start our journey as fools and become wise through experience and that the hands that make mistakes belongs to those who work and always carry your own water.

What is the legacy you hope to leave one day?

Singie Johns Foundation is my legacy and I hope to leave it in a continuous and effective operation, keeping on helping in alleviating societal hardships and restoring human dignity.

What is your favourite Nelson Mandela quote?

"Real leaders must be ready to sacrifice all for the freedom of their people".
