How do you want the Efeng Bacha Initiative to assist your entrepreneurship journey?

I would like the Efeng Bacha Initiative to assist me with my entrepreneurial journey by firstly helping me grow from within, to help me be able to inspire myself, in order to inspire others. I would appreciate exposure within the corporate world and to also meet and network with like-minded people.

How do you #ServeLikeMadiba?

I serve like Madiba by making it my duty to assist the voiceless. Many children have the potential and ability to better themselves and make their voices heard, however, the problem with our society is children deal with peer pressure, stereotypes and stigma. Thus I make it a point to groom our legacy leaders, into becoming young confident beings that will be able to voice out their issues concerning the status quo. I do this through mentoring and coaching in public speaking and debate. I strongly believe that every child has a potential they need to unleash.

As a #legacyleader, what is your advice to the children and youth of our nation?

My advice to the children and youth of our nation is: Fun is temporary and on the otherside knowledge and education is forever. Friends come and go but decisions stay forever. #BeWise.

What is the legacy you hope to leave one day?

The legacy I hope to leave one day is the youth of South Africa confidently advocating for what is right and ethical for the future of South Africa.

What is your favourite Nelson Mandela quote?

"There is no passion to be found by playing small- in settling for a life that is less than the one you're capable of living."
