

Efeng Bacha 2021 - 2022

Phumzile Hadebe

What are you studying?

Bachelor of Commerce in Accounting

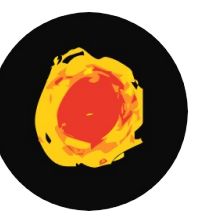

Where are you studying?

University of the Witwatersrand

How do you want the Efeng Bacha Initiative to assist your entrepreneurship journey?

I hope that the programme helps me grow and learn more about the entrepreneurship industry. I would like the Initiative to expose me to the different opportunities and tools available to assist one succeed in their entrepreneurship journey.

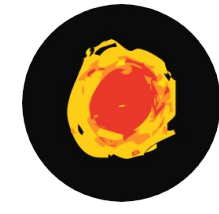

How do you #ServeLikeMadiba?

I believe in helping others in any way that I can because a great leader has the responsibility to guide and assist others whenever SHE can. I have done this through tutoring programmes and participating in volunteering activities to assist feed the homeless around my area. I am in the process of starting a youth read-a-book programme in my hometown that aims to help young people with improving their reading skills this coming holiday.

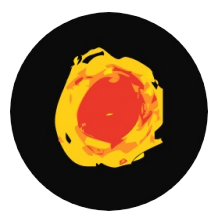

As a #legacyleader, what is your advice to the children and youth of our nation?

The future is young however the future is right now. Your destiny is in your hands, and you are capable of great things, black child with all that you are and all that you have right now.

What is the legacy you hope to leave one day?

I hope to leave a legacy of leadership and taking initiative to start the change you want to see. I hope to leave a legacy for the youth to trust and believe in themselves that they are capable of great things and making a difference in the world.

What is your favourite Nelson Mandela quote?

“a fundamental concern for others in our individual and community lives would go a long way in making the world the better place we so passionately dreamt of“

